- I will use the Scout Oath and Law as my guide throughout the NYLT course. I will follow all of the rules of the Boy Scouts of America, the Great Southwest Council, and Gorham Scout Ranch.
- I will set a good example by dressing neatly and presentably in the proper NYLT course uniform.
- I will be responsible for keeping my tent, gear, and area of responsibility clean and neat. I will do my share to prevent littering of any camp, meeting areas, and facilities.
- I understand that the purchase, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs by any NYLT staff or participant is prohibited. I understand that gambling of any kind is prohibited.

- While participating in NYLT course activities, I will obey the safety rules and instructions of adult staff and senior staff. If I don't feel comfortable following their instructions, I will inform them that I am uncomfortable and would like to speak with another adult about the situation.
- Matters that I feel are sensitive I will discuss only with the adult staff to respect the privacy and dignity of the person(s) involved.
- I understand that the NYLT medic will dispense all medications, unless there is approval and need for urgency in case of an emergency or as allowed by other current policies in place.

What is NYLT?

National Youth Leadership Training is a six-day outdoor experience for youth leaders. It supports the Scout leader responsibility to train youth leaders. Participants sleep in tents, prepare their own meals by patrols, learn life skills, and live by the Scout Oath and Law. Training youth leaders is a critical component for helping individual Scouts and Scout Units to grow. The Boy Scouts of America developed the National Youth Leadership Training (NYLT) course, a valuable learning experience for educating youth leaders. The Great Southwest Council offers NYLT annually.

Goals of NYLT:

For the Scout: A Scout will be walk away from NYLT with:

Confidence and knowledge to lead the unit program

Basic knowledge of the eleven skills of leadership and help them relate these skills to their unit's responsibilities including Communication, Goals and how to set Plans to achieve them and Ethical Decision Making

- * Introduction to the Leaders who set the foundation for the Scouting movement
- * Opportunity to make friends, share ideas and experiences with Scouts from other units
- * Create an atmosphere in which Scouts will experience the patrol method
- * Prerequisite for attending National Youth Leadership Experience (NAYLE) – Scouting's premiere youth National Training Program at Philmont.

For the Scout Leader: In addition to investing in the Scout the benefits listed above, you should expect:

- * The relationship between the Scout and his or her Scout leader to be strengthened
- * The Scout to understand the importance a Youth Led Unit– what it looks like, what it sounds like
- * To help lead a PLC – they will participate in a Patrol Leader Conference and will understand
- * How to plan a meeting via the Seven-Step Unit Meeting Plan
- * How to run a proper Flag Ceremony and be able to plan a campfire
- * Have the ability to teach / lead via Tuckman's Model and EDGE method
- * Have seen demonstrated, helped run, and understands the patrol method
- * To come back to the unit ready to lead

Who is encouraged to attend?

Leaders (current and future). We are a co-ed national program serving Boy Scouts, and Venturing Scouts (male or female) all of whom may participate in the NYLT course in patrols that includes Scouts from other units that they typically have not met. If you are involved in any leadership position or a member of the Order of the Arrow (or hope to be), this course is for you. Youth of all ages benefit.

Each course participant must be of sufficient maturity and experience as reflected in these requirements:

- * First Class Scout (for Boy Scouts) Note for 2019 this is waived for girls in troops.
- * At least 14 years-old or 13 and have completed the 8th Grade
- * Serving, or likely to serve, in a youth leadership position
- * Venturing/Sea Scouts including female participants
- * The Scout should also have a strong personal desire to attend the course

NYLT builds leaders. We are not in a position to tolerate behavior not reflective of the Scout Oath and Law. We will work with parents and scouts to make sure each attendant has the opportunity to complete the course, but not at the expense of the course or other attendees.
