2013 Cub Scout Pinewood Derby Race Results

The Mesa Verde District of the Great Southwest Council, BSA, conducted the 2013 Pinewood Derby in Cortez, on Saturday, March 23, 2013. Special thanks go out to Mesa Elementary School and the Cortez area school district for their support in allowing the races to be held in the school gym. The Mesa Verde District spans southwest Colorado and Cub Scouts from throughout the District had the opportunity to show their car building, car racing, and sportsmanship talents. Melany Bradley, Activity Chair for the event this year, stated that scouts, their families, and the many supporting communities look forward to this annual event wherein the many hours of preparation time invested lead to a much anticipated racing event. Over 55 scouts and adults entered cars into the five categories: Tiger Den Scouts(1st Graders), Wolf Den Scouts(2nd Graders), Bear Den Scouts(3rd Graders), Webelos Den Scouts(4th and 5th Graders), and the Open Class.

Winners in each of the brackets are as follows:
